

Comparison of Coverage - Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund (FHCF) and Reinsurance to Assist Policyholders program (RAP)
Based on Preliminary Information

Feature	Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund (FHCF)	Reinsurance to Assist Policyholders Program (RAP)	Comments
1 Excluded Companies	n/a	Citizens Property Insurance Corporation and companies the Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) determines ineligible.	Companies initially eligible to participate in the RAP program include those participating in the FHCF on June 1, 2022. New participants writing covered policies after June 1 must defer RAP coverage to 2023-2024.
2 Contract Term	1 Year (6/1 - 5/31)	1 Year (6/1 - 5/31)
3 Expiration of Program	n/a	Temporary (1 year of coverage only; 2022 or 2023)	Companies with private reinsurance coverage that duplicates the RAP coverage must defer to 06/01/23 to 05/31/2024. See #6 below for more detail on the RAP deferral.
4 Estimated Industry Participation	100%	81.9242%	Based on 2021 FHCF premium. Actual participation ratio will be based on 2022 FHCF premiums evaluated as of 12/31/2022.
5 Statutory Industry Limit	$17 billion	$2 billion	RAP Industry limit is sum of all company limits including companies that choose to defer to 2023-2024 contract year.
6 Deferral Year Limit	n/a	2023-2024 deferral limit is the total limit deferred from 2022-2023. Limit and retention factors are calculated in 2022 to allocate the portion of RAP limit deferred. New companies after 06/01/2022 are deemed to defer RAP coverage to 2023-2024.	For companies deferring coverage to 2023-2024, the RAP retention will be 2023-2024 FHCF industry retention minus 2023-2024 RAP Limit. The 2023-2024 industry RAP limit = $2 billion minus the sum of 2022-2023 RAP limits of companies that did not defer.
7 Events Covered	Any storm declared to be a hurricane by the National Hurricane Center, which storm causes insured losses in Florida	Any storm declared to be a hurricane by the National Hurricane Center, which storm causes insured losses in Florida.	RAP program covers the two covered events with largest covered losses.
8 Qualification Ratio	n/a	For 2022, 81.9242% = the ratio of (a) FHCF premium adjusted to 90% coverage for RAP insurers divided by (b) the FHCF premium adjusted to 90% coverage for all insurers.	The preliminary ratio for 2022 is based on 2021-2022 FHCF premiums as of 12/31/21 adjusted to 90% based on 2022-2023 coverage selections. The actual ratio for 2022 will be based on 2022-2023 FHCF premiums as of 12/31/22, adjusted to 90% coverage.
9 Industry Per Event Retention (2 largest events)	$8.513 billion	$8.513 B minus ($2 B/RAP Qualifying Ratio)	Industry retentions are the sum of all company retentions.
10 Retention Drop Down (3rd and smaller events)	$2.838 billion (1/3 of retention for each company's 2 largest covered events)	No coverage
11 Coverage Options	90%, 75%, 45%	90%
12 Industry Average Coverage Selection	85.9%	90%	Based on 2021 FHCF exposures and 2022 company coverage selections
13 Loss Adjustment Expense Allowance	10% of reimbursed Covered Loss not to exceed the limit	10% of reimbursed Covered Loss not to exceed the limit
14 Layer Size	Top of layer floats to provide $17 billion limit based on coverage.	Bottom of layer (retention) floats to provide $2 billion limit based on industry qualification.
15 Premium	$1.368 billion (estimated industry)	$0
16 Loss Coverage	Company losses excess of FHCF retention per event x selected coverage % with 10% LAE subject to FHCF Limit	Company losses excess of RAP retention per event x 90% coverage with 10% LAE subject to RAP limit
17 Commutation	Mandatory 5 years after expiration of contract term	Mandatory 5 years after expiration of contract term as provided for in RAP contract

Comparison of Coverage - Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund (FHCF) and Reinsurance to Assist Policyholders program (RAP)
Based on Preliminary Information

Feature	Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund (FHCF)	Reinsurance to Assist Policyholders Program (RAP)	Comments
18 Preliminary 2022-2023 Limit (Payout) Multiples (by Coverage %)			RAP preliminary payout multiples are based on prior contract year premiums as of December 31.
19 90%	12.2302	1.7039
20 75%	12.2302	2.0447
21 45%	12.2302	3.4079
22 Preliminary 2022-2023 Retention Multiples (by Coverage %)
23 90%	5.9418	4.2379	RAP retention multiples equal FHCF retention multiples minus RAP limit multiples.
24 75%	7.1302	5.0855
25 45%	11.8837	8.4758
26 Multiple Basis	FHCF Premium	FHCF Premium
27 Exposure Evaluation Date	6/30/2022	n/a	RAP coverage uses FHCF exposure data
28 Exposure Reporting Deadline	9/1/2022	n/a
29 Source of Loss Reimbursements	Held assets from premiums and investment earnings; post-event financing if needed	Transfer from the state's General Revenue
30 Losses above FHCF Retention		FHCF pays first, RAP pays second.	There is a small overlap of coverage of up to a maximum of $20.020 million of loss that is covered by both FHCF and RAP if a loss exceeds the FHCF retention.
31 Preliminary 2022-2023 Maximum Loss for RAP Limit (% above FHCF Retention)	n/a		For losses above the FHCF retention, the FHCF loss coverage inures to the benefit of the RAP program. The RAP program will pay 90% of the remaining FHCF insurer copay plus 10% for LAE. The loss level for maximum RAP loss can be determined using these %s (above the FHCF retention) by FHCF coverage selection.
32 90%		2.8967%
33 75%		1.1587%
34 45%		0.5267%
35 Deferral Year Limit	n/a	2023-2024 deferral limit is the total limit deferred from 2022-2023. Limit and retention factors are calculated in 2022 to allocate the portion of RAP limit deferred. New companies after 06/01/2022 are deemed to defer RAP coverage to 2023-2024.	For companies deferring coverage to 2023-2024, the RAP retention will be the 2023-2024 FHCF industry retention minus the 2023-2024 RAP limit