NEW MEMBER APPOINTED TO FLORIDA PRIME ADVISORY COUNCIL

Yesterday, the Board of Trustees approved the appointment of Barbara Scott, Clerk of the Circuit Court and County Comptroller for Charlotte County, to the vacant position previously held by Karen Nicolai on the Participant Local Government Advisory Council (PLGAC).

Ms. Scott is a Certified Clerk of the Circuit Court with the Florida State Supreme Court and a Certified Clerk of the Circuit Court with the International Association of Clerks, Records, Election Officials and Treasurers. She is also a Certified Court Executive and Fellow of the Institute for Court Management. As a result of her initiatives, Ms. Scott has been awarded the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for twenty-five consecutive years as well as twice being honored as Clerk of the Year by the Florida Association of Court Clerks.

As one of the main governing bodies overseeing Florida PRIME, the PLGAC consists of 6 appointed members possessing special knowledge, experience, and familiarity obtained through active, long-standing participation in Florida PRIME.
